

Customer Service Training

What are the qualities of exceptional customer service? What are the benefits? In this three-hour workshop, participants study examples of companies that have high customer service standards, talk about goodwill, and learn seven key principles of outstanding customer service. In this hands-on class, participants practice verbal and non-verbal communication techniques, better listening practices, and questioning methods. By the end of the class, participants will be better able to use problem-solving skills to better assess their customers' needs and confidently resolve their complaints.

Group classes in Live Online and onsite training is available for this course. For more information, email contact@nyimtraining.com or visit: <https://training-nyc.com/courses/customer-service-training>

contact@nyimtraining.com • (212) 658-1918

Course Outline

Module 1 – Defining customer service

I. What is good/ exceptional customer service?

- Case studies: three exceptional companies
- What is your company's policy?
- What is goodwill?

II. 7 Principles of customer service

- Support customers as a team, listen, don't be robotic
- Be empathetic and honest, be knowledgeable and answer in a timely manner

Module 2 – Developing customer service skills

III. Communication

Listen, patience, empathy, difficult conversations

IV. Organization

- Spreadsheets, databases, keep track of frequently asked questions
- Automation of repetitive tasks

V. Collaborative tools to help avoid multiple responses

Demo of tools

Module 3 – Solving problems

VI. How to best assess the situation

Is the customer always right?

VII. Building confidence

Knowledge of product

VIII. Listen to resolve, not to argue

Asking the kinds of questions that elicit the information you need